RETURNS:

The following item was RETURNED by the Laurel Office:

Helena Kaltenbach. Name. The Laurel staff ruled that under current precedent German geographical surnames used with a feminine given name either must be feminized by adding the suffix -in or be placed in the possessive to indicate that the lady “belonged to” a man with that surname. Since the submitter allowed no changes whatsoever to the submitted name, they felt they had to return the name as a whole because it could not be modified to Helena Kaltenbach*in*.

Your servant,

Alisoun
