

Herald's Point

*Newsletter for the Heralds of the Kingdom of Atlantia
April AS XXXV, being the 2001st year of Our Lord*

Greetings to the heralds of Atlantia from Lord Michael Batcok, Triton.

Just a few quick notes as we begin the busy tournament season:

First, drink water. The worst thing that can happen to a herald on the field is to have your voice fail because your throat has dried out.

Second, there are many opportunities coming for all types of heralds to participate on the field and at the consultation table. At Crown Tournament with Nottinghill Coill/Hidden Mountain and Atlantian 20 Year Celebration with Dun Carraig/Ponte Alto being the most notable of the opportunities to develop and show off your skills.

Third, with tournaments come courts. When filling out your court reports please try to include the modern names of the recipients to make it easier for the Clerk of Precedence to track them.

Other items of note:

Atlantian University is coming to Border Vale Keep June 2nd. I have asked THL Eógan mac Ailpein (Boreas Pursuivant, Windmaster's Hill) to coordinate the heraldic track. If you have any plans to be at University, please contact Eógan at gbonar@auspex.com and offer to teach a class. Any class not covered will be instructed by he or I...you've been warned.

There is a new Herald's Point editor, Lady Ceridwen merc Tudwal Penwyn. Please be kind to her and submit articles for future publication, this newsletter is only as good as we make it.

And last but not least, the time has come once again for all good heralds (and more importantly, all you bad heralds) to submit your quarterly reports. Remember, Baronial heralds who miss two reports in a row put their groups at risk of suspension until the delinquent reports have been filed.

Until Later...

Batcok, Triton

From the New Herald's Point Editor

Heartfelt greetings from Lady Ceridwen merc Tudwal Penwyn!

I look forward to serving the College as editor. And as my second (this edition being my first) duty, I send out a call for articles to fill the pages. Seeing as how I have just taken over this position, I begin with empty hands. I hope to have more words to offer next time.

The newsletter is available electronically at: <http://herald.atlantia.sca.org>.

All members who have email addresses are informed via email when the issue is available. Those who do not have web access will be mailed a copy.

The full College of Herald's of Atlantia Roster is available at <http://herald.atlantia.sca.org>.

If you have articles you wish printed in the July edition, please send them via email to ceridwen@disinfo.net as a text file or in Word.

Yours in service,
Ceridwen
